Prince of Wales Knows How It Feels to Be "Dead Broke"

MIOWERA, NEW SOUTH WALLES, Sept. 12.—The Prince of Wales had the time of his life here a mong the hard-riding, straight-shooting outspoken ranchers, and by his adaptability and good fellowship, made himself extremely popular. He won their respect when he entered five races against these premier horsemen and won all the events.

The ranchers are having a quiet smile over an amusing but somewhat embarrassing incident in which the prince was involved, with his usual "hall fellow well-met" bearing, the prince on one occasion asked every one in the house to have a drink with him, After the drinks had been served, the heir to the richest throne in the world discovered he had no money, lie entited on Admiral Halsey, who is touring with him, for funds but the only reply was: "I haven't a shilling on me, sir,"
Finally another firember of the royal party came to the resence and the drinks were handed around. to all party came to the rescue and the drinks were handed around.
